

Sasa Mijalkovic, Goran Boskovic and Nikola Stanisavljevic (teaching/training/researching and administrative staff of Academy for Criminalistic and Police Studies, Belgrade) have visited Technical University of Crete (TUC), in September 2018.

During the 5th and 6th September, they took part in SC, PMC, QAC and SMS meetings.

After that, they took part in staff mobility for training (10th to 14th September). During that time, they have made excellent cooperation with the colleagues of TUC; they were informed about teaching and researching processes in TUC, about the organization of Institution, about studies programmes, international cooperation and about the students of TUC.

Also, they took part in training mobility strandt, for 5 days.
