

Darko Paspalj, Dragana Vasiljević and Milica Sikimić (teaching/training/researching staff of Faculty of Security Studies, University of Banjaluka) have visited Academy of Criminalistic and Police Studies, Belgrade, in November 2018.

From 12th to 16th November they took part in staff mobility for training. During that time, they have made excellent cooperation with the colleagues of Academy of Criminalistic and Police Studies; they were informed about teaching and researching processes in Academy, about the organization of Institution, about studies programmes, international cooperation and about the students of Academy. They visited contemporary classrooms for learning about natural disasters.

Also, they took part on meeting of Academy NatRisk team.
